"What kinda adorable things have you done for my sake?"

Touched by Takaya, Touma's body responded by rejecting him, and Touma despairs at the idea of leaving behind his childhood friend. Even though he loves Takaya, Touma can still detect the scent of a girl on him as he avoids and flees Takaya.

"I hate it that reek of a woman's perfume."

The insensitive Takaya shrugs off this powerful love awakening. But during its intense moments, Touma's unrequited love will hardly wait for a conclusion!

Touma has been crushing on Takaya since they were kids While having maiden-like thoughts like, "I want to be his princess," his real personality is rough, reckless and he's 2cm taller than Takaya

While being aware that his body and emotions don't match, it pains Touma cruelly to watch Takaya with his new girlfriend And then when touched by Takaya, Touma rejects him and goes so far as to throw up He then decides to put some distance between him and Takaya

However, Yonezawa, senpai of the "Jack-Of-All-Trades" club, is watching this situation carefully and has detected this unrequited love Machiko, his younger sister, has a forbidden love for her own brother but her positive attitude has its influence on Touma

Then one day, Takaya gets enraged by the hickeys Yonezawa left on Touma Furthermore, Touma has written a request to "Jack-Of-All-Trades" which reads, "Please make me forget Takaya "

What will Takaya do after seeing this content?
